Pioneer Conferencing Implements Conference Call Management Tools To Improve Customer Experience

New York, NY, 08/19/2006- Pioneer Conferencing LLC will now offer a conference call management tool- facilitated through their website- which will allow conference call moderators the ability to manage calls and view post conference summaries in real-time. Previously, conference calls were controlled through the phone and moderators had to view their monthly invoice to view call details. This feature will be available immediately for all clients.

Pioneer Conferencing LLC is an innovative audio and web conferencing provider offering a full suite of services to the business community. The company offers user-friendly tools effective for use in any environment ranging from small collaborative meetings to large media rich events. Headquartered in New York, NY, Pioneer is rapidly becoming a global leader in the market place, traversing all professional verticals.
